Mission

To educate and enhance the quality of life along with improve the health status of families through opportunities and program development. It is also the mission to provide a supportive, therapeutic, and stimulating experience for families who are in transition from adolescence to adulthood.

Vision

Our vision is to provide premiere alternative behavioral practices along with maximizing and utilizing adolescents to their full potential in overcoming the many obstacles and challenges that would impede productive living.

Values

To teach teenagers how to become self-sufficient and productive, as they weave through the many challenges of life. Our objective is to empower and increase awareness while providing quality of services and treatment, which will enhance dignity, humanity and self-worth. So that our future of tomorrow youth can maintain successful community living.

“Introducing a Non-Traditional Approach to Counseling, Therapeutic Interventions and Human Development”

Philosophy

Family Development and Transitional Services

Assumes the position that all human beings have the innate ability to maximize and utilize their full potential in overcoming the many obstacles and challenges that could otherwise impede productive living.

Individuals who are given the opportunity to learn and develop the skills necessary for successful living, are able to demonstrate higher levels of functioning within their own communities and natural environments.
